

Equal Employment Opportunity – 'EEO'

RSM People is committed to providing equal employment opportunity to all employees through being non-discriminatory in recruitment and other conditions of employment including salaries, promotion, termination of employment and professional development.

RSM People will ensure all work environments where temporary and permanent employees are placed are safe and free from all forms of unlawful discrimination.

The policy also applies to the actions and conduct of employees when representing RSM People in all other private and public places.
